Security Alarm System Regulation Bylaw No.3868, 1994

A bylaw to establish fees for policing services provided in response to a false alarm of a security system.

Previous amendment: Amendment Bylaw 4065

WHEREAS Section 932.1 of the Municipal Act provides that Council may establish fees to be paid by the owner or occupier of real property to which policing services are provided in response to a false alarm of a security system;

AND WHEREAS false alarms are being permitted to occur by the owners or users of security alarm systems;

AND WHEREAS these false alarms require unnecessary emergency responses from police posing a threat to the safety of police officers and members of the public, and may result in delayed response to a true emergency;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of The Corporation of the District of West Vancouver, in open meeting assembled, enacts as follows:

1. Citation

This Bylaw may be cited as the "Security Alarm System Regulation Bylaw No. 3868, 1994".

2. Definitions

In this Bylaw, the following definitions shall apply:

"District" means The Corporation of the District of West Vancouver;

"False Alarm" means the activation of an alarm system resulting in the direct or indirect notification of the police department to attend the address of the alarm system where there has been no unauthorized entry or unlawful act on or in relation to the building, structure, residence or facility, or where there has been no emergency situation and includes:

- a) Testing of an alarm, which results in a police response;
- b) An alarm reporting an attempted or completed criminal offense or an emergency situation occurring on or in relation to the premises in which the alarm device or system is installed, where no evidence exists or where no such event took place;
- c) An alarm actually or apparently activated by mechanical failure, malfunction or faulty equipment;
- d) An alarm activated by user negligence or carelessness;
- e) An alarm actually or apparently activated by atmospheric conditions, excessive vibrations or power failure.

“Police” means the West Vancouver Police Department.

“Security Alarm System” means a device or devices installed on real property and designed to activate either an audible alarm signal or to alert a monitoring facility.

3. Owner's Responsibilities

The owner of real property shall be responsible for the proper use, installation, maintenance and operation of any Security Alarm System installed on or in the real property in order to ensure the prevention of false alarms.

4. Exception

This Bylaw does not apply to fire alarm systems that are intended to alert only the occupants of the dwelling unit in which they are installed.

5. Administration of the Bylaw

The Chief Constable will administer the application of the Bylaw.

Bylaw 4065 6. Fees to be Charged for Attendance to False Alarms

- a) On the occurrence of a second false alarm, during any consecutive twelve-month period, there will be a fee charged of $75.00.

*Repealed by Fees and Charges
Bylaw 4414,*

- b) On the occurrence of a third false alarm, during any consecutive twelve-month period, there will be a fee charged of $100.00.
- c) On the occurrence of a fourth and fifth, during any consecutive twelve-month period, there will be a fee charged of $125.00.
- d) On the occurrence of a sixth, and for each subsequent false alarm, during any consecutive twelve-month period, there will be a fee of 200.00.

7. Invoicing

- a) Where a fee is charged, the police shall invoice the owner of the premises for police response services.
- b) An invoice issued under this section shall be due and payable upon receipt.

8. Collection of Fees

- a) Any fees remaining unpaid at December 31st (and where the bill is more than 30 days in arrears) shall be added to and form part of the taxes payable on the real property as taxes in arrears.
- b) All fees collected become the property of the District.
