DISTRICT OF WEST VANCOUVER
750 17TH STREET, WEST VANCOUVER BC V7V 3T3

COUNCIL REPORT

Date:	March 20, 2023
From:	Mark Panneton, Director, Legislative Services/Corporate Officer
Subject:	Proposed Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5229, 2023
File:	1610-20-5229

RECOMMENDATION

THAT proposed "Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5229, 2023" be read a first, second, and third time.

1.0 Purpose

Council is required to consider whether to establish a code of conduct for council members within six months of taking office, pursuant to Section 113.1 of the Community Charter. Staff, in conjunction with the Municipal Solicitor, have drafted a code of conduct bylaw for Council's consideration accordingly.

2.0 Legislation/Bylaw/Policy

There are no directly applicable District bylaws or policies. District bylaws and policies set standards of conduct for staff and members of the public at District facilities, but do not regulate the behaviour of Council members outside of Council meetings. Prior to drafting the proposed bylaw staff conducted a review of relevant documents that apply to the behaviour of both staff and members of the public; this review informed portions of the proposed bylaw.

Section 113.1 (Requirement to consider code of conduct) of the Community Charter applies.

3.0 Council Strategic Objective(s)/Official Community Plan

The establishment of a Council code of conduct is an administrative function and has no direct impact on, or relationship to, either Council's strategic objectives or the Official Community Plan.

4.0 Financial Implications

If adopted, proposed Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5229, 2023 would institute standards of conduct for Council members. Council members would be expected to regulate their own conduct in accordance with the provisions of the proposed bylaw; no direct enforcement costs are anticipated.

In the event of a breach of this bylaw, costs may be incurred in relation to: the hiring of a third-party investigator or arbitrator; and the staff time required to hold a Council meeting so that Council can discuss the alleged breach and determine whatever penalties Council believes appropriate. Any such costs would be incurred in accordance with the provisions of the proposed bylaw and under the guidance of the Chief Administrative Officer.

5.0 Background

5.1 Previous Decisions

Council, at its November 2, 2020 regular meeting, passed the following resolution:

THAT staff be directed to report back to Council regarding the creation of a Council Code of Conduct.

Council, at its July 12, 2021 regular meeting, defeated the following resolution:

THAT proposed “Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5112, 2021” be read a first time.

5.2 History

Over the past decade there has been increasing awareness of the importance of establishing municipal codes of conduct to guide and regulate the behaviour of Council members. A number of high-profile incidents in municipalities across the province have brought the public's attention to issues of conduct by local government elected officials, and also highlighted the general lack of remedies to such issues provided for in Provincial legislation.

The Working Group on Responsible Conduct (a longstanding joint initiative by the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, the Local Government Management Association of British Columbia, and the B.C. Ministry of Municipal Affairs) has been working hard to address such issues. In their most recent report, released in April 2021 and titled “Forging the Path to Responsible Conduct in Your Local Government”, the Working Group notes the important role that a Council code of conduct plays in ensuring effective governance.

At their November 2, 2020 regular meeting, Council directed staff to report on the creation of a code of conduct. In accordance with Council's direction, staff, acting in conjunction with the Municipal Solicitor, developed and brought forward a proposed Council Code of Conduct bylaw for Council's consideration at the July 12, 2021 regular meeting. However, Council voted against proceeding with the code of conduct at that time.

The Municipal Affairs Statutes Amendment Act (No. 2), 2021, amended the Community Charter to introduce a province-wide requirement for Councils to consider a code of conduct bylaw within six months after the first regular Council meeting following a general local election. In order to comply with this legislative requirement, staff have brought forward a new Code of Conduct bylaw for Council's consideration.

6.0 Analysis

6.1 Discussion

Taking steps to ensure responsible conduct by elected officials can safeguard the ability of local government to perform its fundamental responsibilities and to make collective decisions in the best interests of the community. It is considered best practice for local government officials to establish a Code of Conduct bylaw that sets out behavioral expectations and provides for remedies when such expectations are not met.

In accordance with the Principles for Codes of Conduct Regulation of the Community Charter, proposed Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5229, 2023 is based on the following principles:

- Council members must carry out their duties with integrity;
- Council members are accountable for the decisions that they make, and the actions that they take, in the course of their duties;
- Council members must be respectful of others;
- Council members must demonstrate leadership and collaboration.

These principles align with the Oath of Office taken by Council at their inaugural meeting on November 7, 2022, and form the basis for good governance at the local level.

The Province of British Columbia notes that the manner in which elected officials conduct themselves in their relationships with elected colleagues, staff and the public is directly connected to how a community is governed. If a local government faces issues related to less-than-responsible conduct, it may affect the local government's ability to provide good governance to their community. Therefore, proposed Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5229, 2023 would, if adopted:

- Set out behavioural expectations for local government elected officials;
- Establish an informal resolution process for situations in which behavioural expectations are not met; and
- Establish a formal resolution process for situations in which a departure from behavioural expectations is of a nature that requires Council consideration of the subject behaviour, as well as the potential imposition of proportional remedies by Council.

6.2 Sustainability

There are no direct environmental implications associated with this bylaw. If adopted, proposed Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5229, 2023 would create a sustainable framework of both behavioural expectations and associated remedies for local government elected officials.

6.3 Public Engagement and Outreach

Proposed Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5229, 2023 has been brought forward in accordance with legislative requirements. No public engagement and outreach was conducted in relation to the drafting of the proposed bylaw.

6.4 Other Communication, Consultation, and Research

Staff consulted with the Municipal Solicitor and referred to best practice documents produced by the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, the Local Government Management Association of British Columbia, and the B.C. Ministry of Municipal Affairs (including the joint Working Group on Responsible Conduct) during the bylaw drafting process.

7.0 Options

7.1 Recommended Option

Staff recommend that proposed Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5229, 2023 be read a first, second, and third time.

7.2 Considered Options

Council could instead choose to either:

- a) provide specific feedback relative to proposed Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5229, 2023, direct staff to alter the proposed bylaw to incorporate that feedback, and direct staff to return to Council with an altered bylaw for consideration; or
- b) not proceed with proposed Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5229, 2023, in which case Council would be required to pass a motion that:
 - states that it has considered the prescribed principles for codes of conduct; and
 - outlines the reasons for its decision to not proceed with the bylaw.

(Note: This motion is a legislative requirement should Council choose not to proceed with the bylaw.)

8.0 Conclusion

Over the past decade, adoption of a Council code of conduct has become accepted as a local government best practice. Staff have brought forward proposed Council Code of Conduct Bylaw No. 5229, 2023 for consideration in accordance with legislative requirements.

Part 6 Complaint Process

Complaint

- 6.1 If a Council Member, an Advisory Body Member or Staff considers that they have been subjected to a contravention of this bylaw by a Council Member, they may initiate, at their sole discretion, one of the following resolution processes within six months of the alleged contravention:
- a) Individual Resolution;
 - b) Informal Resolution; or
 - c) Formal Resolution.
- 6.2 Once the complainant selects a resolution process, the selected resolution process must be completed before the complainant may proceed to the next resolution process.
- 6.3 Any person who has witnessed or experienced conduct by a Council Member which they believe to be in contravention of this bylaw or another District policy governing conduct of a Council Member may submit a complaint to the Chief Administrative Officer. In such circumstances, the Chief Administrative Officer will determine the appropriate form of resolution for the complaint.
- 6.4 The Chief Administrative Officer must reject a complaint regarding a Council Member seeking re-election in the period from the first day of the nomination period to the general voting day.
- 6.5 Where a complaint is made against a Council Member who, during the course of any of the resolution processes, ceases to hold office, the Chief Administrative Officer or the Investigator, as the case may be, may close the complaint and notify the complainant and Council Member of this decision.

Individual Resolution

- 6.6 If a Council Member, an Advisory Body Member or Staff considers that they have been subjected to a contravention of this bylaw by a Council Member and if they are comfortable discussing the matter directly with the Council Member, they may inform the Council Member of the alleged contravention and request an apology and, if applicable, that the contravention cease immediately.
- 6.7 If the complainant is not comfortable with discussing the matter directly with the Council Member, or if after discussion the contravention continues, the complainant may inform the Chief Administrative Officer (or their designate) of the allegation. The Chief Administrative Officer (or their designate) may then agree to act as an advisor to aid the complainant or appoint an advisor as the Chief Administrative Officer (or their designate) deems suitable.
- 6.8 Discussions regarding the complainant's concerns are confidential, advisory, and informal in nature. The only exception to an advisor maintaining confidentiality is if they deem the complaint to indicate a possible threat to any person. In that case, the advisor must immediately inform the Chief Administrative Officer of the complaint and inform the complainant of this requirement to do so. The Chief Administrative Officer may take any additional steps that they deem appropriate to deal with the possible threat.
- 6.9 An advisor acting under section 6.7 must assist the complainant to resolve the complaint, including by discussing the alleged contravention with the Council Member.
- 6.10 If the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome after the advisor has finished assisting the complainant, the complainant may, within 10 business days of being informed by the advisor of the outcome, file in writing with the Chief Administrative Officer:
- (a) a record of the allegation; and
 - (b) a request to proceed with Informal Resolution.

Informal Resolution

- 6.11 Subject to 6.4, if the complainant elects to proceed with Informal Resolution then a third party will be selected to act as a mediator.
- 6.12 The mediator will be selected by agreement of the complainant and the Council Member, with the Chief Administrative Officer retaining the right to select a mediator if the complainant and the Council Member are unable to agree.

- 6.13 The role of the mediator is to help the complainant and the Council Member come to an agreement, and not to advocate a position or impose a decision.
- 6.14 Both the complainant and the Council Member may be accompanied by a representative of their choice, including a lawyer, or, if the complainant is a member of a union, a union representative or a lawyer on behalf of the union.
- 6.15 Once mediation has concluded, the mediator will prepare a report to the Chief Administrative Officer.
- 6.16 If the complaint is resolved through Informal Resolution, a written report noting the complaint and the resolution will be given to the complainant, the Council Member, and the Chief Administrative Officer. If the mediator has recommendations for the District to consider, the mediator will forward these recommendations to the Chief Administrative Officer. The report, including the resolution and recommendations, must be kept in confidence, unless all parties agree in writing to disclose the information.
- 6.17 If the complaint is not resolved through Informal Resolution, a written report documenting the complaint, the mediation process, and the reasons why the involved parties were unable to reach an agreement will be given to the complainant, the Council Member, and the Chief Administrative Officer. The complainant may, within 10 business days of receiving the mediator's report, file in writing with the Chief Administrative Officer a request to proceed with Formal Resolution.

Formal Resolution

- 6.18 Subject to Section 6.4, upon receipt of the written complaint, the Chief Administrative Officer must, within 10 business days of receiving the complainant's request, retain a third-party investigator (the "Investigator").
- 6.19 The Chief Administrative Officer may proceed with Formal Resolution, through the retention of an Investigator, even if the complainant withdraws the complaint.
- 6.20 In keeping with the principles of procedural fairness, the Investigator must:
 - (a) confirm receipt of the written complaint to the complainant;
 - (b) notify the Council Member of the allegation, provide the Council Member with a copy of this bylaw and advise the complainant of this notification;

- (c) receive information from any witnesses who the Investigator believes may have information relevant to the complaint, and this information may be received through written documentation, interviews, or informal hearings;
 - (d) keep both the complainant and the Council Member aware of any allegations made against them and ensure that they are given a reasonable opportunity to respond; and
 - (e) inform the complainant and the Council Member that they may be accompanied by a representative, including a lawyer, of their choice during the Formal Review process, including the meeting described in sections 6.36 to 6.39 of this bylaw.
- 6.21 If the Council Member fails to respond, the Mayor at the request of the Investigator may compel witnesses pursuant to the provisions of the Community Charter.
- 6.22 The Investigator must ensure that all relevant details, dates, conversations and meetings are documented. Such working records created by the Investigator are confidential.
- 6.23 In the 90 days prior to general voting day, the Investigator may suspend any investigation that is underway until the day after the general voting day, unless the Council Member who is the subject of the investigation is not re-elected, in which case the Investigator may close the complaint after the general voting day.
- 6.24 Once the investigation has been completed, the Investigator must prepare a written report and provide a copy of the report to the Chief Administrative Officer and Council. The report must, at a minimum, contain a description of the allegations, a summary of the evidence of the parties and the witnesses, and a determination of whether a contravention occurred. The report may also provide recommendations with respect to the potential outcome.
- 6.25 Notwithstanding section 6.20, the Investigator may, after commencing the investigation, close the complaint and decline to proceed if the Investigator reasonably concludes that:
- (a) There are no grounds or insufficient grounds to conclude that a violation of this bylaw has occurred;
 - (b) The complaint is not with respect to a breach of this bylaw;
 - (c) The complaint is frivolous, vexatious or not made in good faith;

- (d) The complaint is already the subject of another outstanding process, such as a court proceeding, a human rights complaint, or an investigation or inquiry under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act;
- (e) The complainant wishes to withdraw the complaint and the investigator concludes it would be appropriate to allow the complaint to be withdrawn; or
- (f) The complainant ceases to cooperate in the investigation, such that the investigation is hampered and/or the Council Member may be prejudiced.

Responsibilities of the Chief Administrative Officer

- 6.26 If the Investigator concludes that a contravention has occurred, the Chief Administrative Officer must consider reasonable action to protect the complainant from any subsequent action or reprisal.
- 6.27 The Chief Administrative Officer must also consider reasonable action to protect the rights of the subject Council Member and to see that no reprisal takes place beyond the measure determined by Council.
- 6.28 If the Investigator finds that the original complaint was frivolous or vexatious, or was initiated in bad faith:
- (a) where the complainant is a Council or Advisory Body Member, Council may consider appropriate measures in respect of the complainant; and
 - (b) where the complainant is Staff or a Volunteer, the Chief Administrative Officer may consider appropriate measures in respect of the complainant.
- 6.29 A copy of the investigator's report and the Council decision will be retained in a confidential file maintained by the Chief Administrative Officer, except when all or part of the decision is made at a meeting that is open to the public or otherwise disclosed to the public in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.
- 6.30 If approved by Council, the Chief Administrative Officer will consider implementing administrative changes to District policies or procedures recommended by the Investigator's report.

Council Determination of Measures

- 6.31 Upon conclusion of the Formal Resolution process, Council must:
- (a) review the report of the Investigator;
 - (b) conduct a meeting regarding the complaint in accordance with the process described in sections 6.36 to 6.39 of this bylaw; and
 - (c) at the meeting, consider the factors described in section 6.33 and the measures enumerated in section 6.34.
- 6.32 An investigation report may be considered by Council in a closed meeting for a valid reason under section 90 of the Community Charter, including for the purpose of receiving legal advice, or to ensure compliance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. However, Council's deliberation and vote in relation to any measures to be imposed against the Council Member will be held in a meeting that is open to the public, unless there is a valid reason to do so under the Community Charter. If the Council meeting or a part of the meeting is closed, Council will release a summary of the investigation report and any measures imposed against the Council Member in a form that complies with the District's obligations regarding the disclosure of personal information set out in the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. In some instances, compliance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act may restrict what Council is entitled to release to the public.
- 6.33 In determining the appropriate measure, Council will consider the following factors:
- (a) the degree and nature of the conduct;
