Division 8 — Code of Conduct

Requirement to consider code of conduct

- 113.1 (1) Within 6 months after its first regular council meeting following a general local election, a council must decide
 - (a) whether to establish a code of conduct for council members, or
 - (b) if a code of conduct for council members has already been established, whether it should be reviewed.
 - (2) Before making a decision under subsection (1), the council must
 - (a) consider the prescribed principles for codes of conduct,
 - (b) consider the other prescribed matters, if any, and
 - (c) comply with the prescribed requirements, if any, including requirements respecting public notice or consultation.
 - (3) If the council decides, under subsection (1), not to establish a code of conduct or review an existing code of conduct, it must make available to the public, on request, a statement respecting the reasons for its decision.

Reconsideration of decision respecting code of conduct

- 113.2 (1) If a council decides, under section 113.1, not to establish a code of conduct or review an existing code of conduct, the council must reconsider that decision before January 1 of the year of the next general local election.
 - (2) In a reconsideration under subsection (1), the council must
 - (a) consider the prescribed principles for codes of conduct,
 - (b) consider the other prescribed matters, if any, and
 - (c) comply with the prescribed requirements, if any, including requirements respecting public notice or consultation.
 - (3) If the council confirms the decision that is the subject of the reconsideration, the council must make available to the public, on request, a statement respecting its reasons for confirming the decision.
