Definitions:

Dwelling, Ground-Oriented: two or more principal dwellings and/or principal residential buildings – such as triplexes, multiplexes, rowhouses, and townhouses, each with access to the street, lane or site without the use of common, enclosed stairwells or corridors – that may be on a single lot or subdivided into separate lots.

Building, Apartment: a building, except as otherwise defined herein, containing three or more dwelling units in separate, multiple storeys, but does not include: (a) townhouses; or (b) dwellings over commercial premises.

Market Rental Units are units rented at market rate (i.e., without any legal restrictions binding the rental unit to a certain level of rent).

Non-Market Rental Units are units with a legal obligation (i.e., housing agreement, zoning) to be rented at a non-market rate.

Below-Market Rental Units are units rented at or below 30% of the local Housing Income Limits (HIL) per unit size (please refer to most recent BC Housing HIL levels published for Vancouver).

Below-Market Rental Units with On-Site Supports are units rented at the Income Assistance Shelter rate providing permanent housing and on-site supports for people to transition out of homelessness.

Co-op Housing: also known as housing co-operative, means housing provided to members of an organization incorporated under the Cooperative Association Act, and includes non-profit housing co-operatives and equity co-operatives.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act: personal information contained on this form is collected under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act section 26(c) and will be used for the purpose of processing your development application.
